

APD NEWS

Public Information Office: (512) 974-5017

715 E. 8th St. Austin, Texas 78701

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 14, 2010

Contact: Public Information Office, 974-5017

Media advisory

Austin Police Department trains its leaders by focusing on management and communication-Introduction class

The Austin Police Department will begin the second group of commanders, lieutenants and non-sworn managers in the APD Leadership Command College on Friday, October 1, 2010. Twenty two participants will participate in the college that is a six month course covering topics such as budget, how to maintain big projects, how to run a meeting, how to deal with the media in a crisis. In addition, the participants learn presentation skills, effective writing, and an understanding of the bigger picture of the responsibilities to the department and the community as whole.

APD Leadership Command College

Introduction class

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

1:30 p.m.

JJ Pickle Building, Little Tex building 137

10100 Burnet Road

Today's introduction will be to all of APD's lieutenants and civilian managers.

Media advisory: Today, participants from the previous APD Leadership Command College will be available before the class begins to talk about their experience with the program. In addition, Austin Police Chief Art Acevedo will be available to talk about why this program was started. If you plan to attend please call APD PIO, (512) 974-5017.

###

www.ci.austin.tx.us/police